So following this , love watching legend and I know how u feel ! My horses are my heart and one of my girls coliced few years ago and I spent most of the night at vet till they told me go they have cameras and then every day sat in her stall there until they cleared her to come home and still watched her like a hawk , that's when I saw ur feed routine and switched to Redmond minerals (daily gold and daily red ) and put them on standlee alfalfa and since then no more problems ❤️ hope and pray legend is good
